Dear Elisha Blatt:

In January of this year the San Diego Watercolor Society moved into a newly restored historic building at Liberty Station, the former Naval Training Center at San Diego. The building is a part of the culture and arts center at the NTC Promenade. It is a wonderful facility, but our gallery space had some problems. One full wall was all windows and, with doors and archways, the wall space for hanging paintings was somewhat limited. In addition, it was acoustically a very live room where ambient noise made conversation difficult with more than a few people in the gallery.

The addition of a number of portable partitions, fifty-six panels in all, has doubled our hanging space. The acoustic wall fabric that you so skillfully applied to the partitions has markedly reduced the ambient noise in the gallery making conversation much more pleasant. In addition, the fabric provides an attractive, neutral background for displaying paintings. It also adds a touch of warmth and softness to an otherwise, rather cold, hard feeling in the room.

I wish to thank you on behalf of the members and patrons of the San Diego Watercolor Society for the excellent service you provided in applying acoustic wall covering fabric to the partitions in our art gallery. They look beautiful. Well done.

Our biggest show of the year, the 27th International Exhibition, has its opening reception on Friday, October 5, from 5pm to 8pm. I hope you will be able to join us in celebrating our completed gallery.

Sincerely yours,
